

“We took the principles of the business MBA and the knowledge we have in the healthcare space and blended them together to create a program that teaches healthcare professionals how to deal with change in today’s disruptive environment.”

- JACK WELCH

JACK WELCH MBA

WITH HEALTHCARE CONCENTRATION

Founded by celebrated business leader Jack Welch and ranked a top online MBA program by The Princeton Review and CEO Magazine, the Jack Welch Management Institute provides game-changing education that drives real results for our students.

THE JWMI DIFFERENCE:

Learn it on Monday, Apply it on Tuesday - By bringing actual problems from the healthcare industry into the classroom, students are able to apply the curriculum on the job the next day.

Study with Jack Welch & Other Top CEOs - As part of our Experts of Practice lecture series, you will learn proven business and leadership lessons from Jack Welch and CEOs from Cleveland Clinic, Medtronic, Tampa General Hospital and over 3-dozen other high profile companies.

Proven ROI - 68 percent* of MBA students receive a promotion or raise while in the program.

Top-tier Faculty - Serving as your mentors, JWMI faculty bring decades of professional experience to the program working for top companies including Merck and Co., Procter & Gamble, Johnson & Johnson, American Cancer Society and more.

The Student is our Customer - Unlike traditional universities, JWMI puts the student first. Our success is based on your satisfaction.

Flexible Schedule - Our interactive, 100% online format offers you the opportunity to advance your education without interrupting your career.

OUR COURSES

LEADERSHIP IN THE 21ST CENTURY

This course delves into the concepts, tools and skills leaders need today. It combines theory and practice to examine such topics as strengthening emotional intelligence, motivating people, managing conflict, aligning teams and eliciting support from colleagues and bosses.

BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS AND EXECUTIVE PRESENCE

Communication is a learned skill that everyone can improve. This course will teach you techniques to advance your leadership presence, strategic communication, professional relationships, presentation performance and workplace crisis management.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT I

Maximize the impact of your financial decisions by learning to speak with numbers. In this course, you will learn to read, understand and analyze financial data as well as apply managerial accounting concepts such as costing, variance analysis, forecasting and capital budgeting.

MARKETING IN A GLOBAL ENVIRONMENT

Marketing involves a range of activities designed to convey a persuasive message to a target audience. This course covers marketing plans, qualitative and quantitative research, consumer psychology, product positioning and strategy, pricing, packaging, advertising, customer value and global marketing.

MANAGERIAL ECONOMICS

At its simplest, managerial economics is about making decisions at the individual, firm, market and economy levels in the face of constraints, be they scarce resources, pricing pressures or global competition. At the end of this course, you'll be able to analyze and master competitive forces at both a quantitative and practical level.

PEOPLE MANAGEMENT

In this course, students explore two general areas of people management: hiring and positioning the right players for organizational needs, and managing people once the players are in place. Specific topics include sourcing and integrating new talent, managing talent inventory, performance evaluations and reward systems.

STRATEGY

Using Jack Welch's approach to developing and evaluating a strategy, you will create an effective plan of action designed to achieve the higher-level goals of an organization. You will learn to drive strategic outcomes, identify criteria for uncovering risk, and develop plans for proactively addressing risks inherent to strategy.

ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGE AND CULTURE

From the rapid advance of technology to the steady march of globalization, powerful forces of change are shaping today's business landscape. In this course, students learn a powerful framework for understanding and marshalling change. They also learn when to use Work-Out, Rapid Results and Six Sigma tools.
